Pure Food Board to Consider Beer, Vinegar and Soft Drinks.

Drinks.

Washington, October 11.—An order for the immediate consideration of the perplexing questions, "What is beer?"
"What is vinegar?" and "What is a soft drink?" was passed yearday by the board of food and drug inspection at a meeting held in the office of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry and chairman of the board.

These three pure food problems have been under consideration for nearly two years, but members of the board have been unable to agree The retirement of Solicitor George P. McCabe and the temporary absence of Dr. F.

L. Dunlap from the board leaves Dr. Wiley and Dr. R. E. Doolitite, the new member, prepared to take immediate action to settle the long-standing controversies.

Vinegar will be the first subject considered by the board. Long hearings were recently held on the subject of pure beer, and hearings have been had on both the rinegar and soft drinks investigations. It is the contention of Dr. Wiley, that the proposed in the permitted of the permitted of ject of pure beer, and hearings have been had on both the vinegar and soft drinks investigations. It is the contention of Dr. Wiley that pure vinegar should be made only from cider, and that vinegars made from mait, sugar, molasses, wine and other ingredients, should not be branded as pure vinegar. It is understood that pure vinegar. It is understood that Dr. Doolittle, who is the "vinegar ex-pert" of the Department of Agricul-ture, holds a similar view, and that the board of food and drug inspection with Dr. Wiley's views.

There will be no more hearings any of the three subjects. Dr. Wiley stated to-day that hearings and investigations have been sufficiently thorough to develop all material facts, and that it remains only for the board to examine the evidence and make its rulings. This has been impossible in the past because of the disagreement among three members.

Action against soft drinks sold at soda fountains can apply only to the drinks as they are shipped in interstate commerce. The government police power will give Dr. Wiley the opportunity, however, to enforce his rulings in the city of Washington by confiscating impure drinks at the local soda fountains.

"The pure soft drink should con-

"The pure soft drink should contain only a pure fruit extract, sugar, spice and pure water," said Dr. Wiley. "If I had my way, no other soft drinks would be permitted in the market. The health of children should not be endangered by the artificial sweeteners, coloring matter and flavors that are sometimes used, and the public should be protected against the caffein and 'dope' that finds its way in we many of the drinks."
